

Grafton Street

Project Value: £90K

Programme: 3 months

We installed two Daikin Heat Recovery systems within this period property which was re-developed from a commercial property to a high specification private residential dwelling. This included Interfacing the VRV systems onto a Crestron central house control system.

