

Kings Cross Station, Redevelopment

Project Value: £800K

Programme: 2 years

Coolair Equipment is currently working together with N G Bailey and ARUP Consultants on the re-development project for the King's Cross railway station. This involves the installation of 20 Daikin VRV heat recovery system with i-touch central controllers with BMS interfaces. The building is a grade 2 listed building which demands careful planning, design and installation execution.

Coolair
Your comfort zone